BUSAN TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

HAEUNDAE BEACH

Haeundae, blessed with some of Korea's best scenery, is one of the most popular beaches in Korea, and is where a lot of restaurants and cafés with a modern and sophisticated atmosphere are located. Various cultural events and festivals are regularly held along the beach.

SHINSEGAE CENTUM CITY

The Shinsegae Centum City, which has been listed in Guinness as the world's largest department store, is the largest multiple shopping resort in Asia. It is a place in Busan where people can not only shop but also enjoy various cultural facilities, such as an indoor ice rink, movie theaters, golf range, art gallery, a Spa Land and much more.

BUSAN MUSEUM OF ART

The Busan Museum of Art features 18 exhibition halls, children's museum, educational research rooms, and more and exhibits a rich array of art from various genres.

MOONTAN ROAD

Dalmaji-gil Road (also known as Dalmaji-gogae) is a small walkway littered with cherry blossoms and pine trees along with an 8km driving course. The road is lined with famous cafés, galleries and restaurants, and moonrise on the road is one of the eight scenic views of Korea.

MOUNT HWANGNYEONGSAN

With its amazing panoramic views of the city from Haeundae-gu to Geumjeong-gu, the observatory located halfway up the mountain is considered a must-see for visitors, especially at night.

DONGBAEK ISLAND COASTAL WALK

Located at the end of Haeundae Beach, Dongbaek Island is a natural park famous for its beautiful walking trails that lead to dense camellia trees and pine trees. Enjoy the picturesque scenery of Dongbaek Island from Dalmaji-gill Road to Haeundae Beach and Gwangan Bridge.
