

PARK HYATT BUSAN

the CITY

DYNAMIC BUSAN, A THRIVING
HUB OF TRADE AND TOURISM

Busan, a bustling city of approximately 3.4 million people, is located on the southeastern tip of the Korean Peninsula. The second largest city in South Korea, with its deep harbor and gentle tides have allowed it to grow into the biggest container handling port in the country and the fifth largest in the world.

Busan's natural charm and rich history have won a reputation as a world-class city of tourism and culture, while Busan is also emerging as a major international convention destination.

GWANGAN BRIDGE

This Busan landmark shows the unending horizon of the ocean. During the daytime it displays grandeur through its harmony with the natural surroundings; after sunset it is a romantic venue offering glorious nighttime views.

DONGBAEK ISLAND

Located between Park Hyatt Busan and Haeundae Beach, this natural park is famous for its beautiful walking trails covered by dense camellia and pine trees. The lighthouse is an attraction for memorable photo opportunities.

HAEUNDAE BEACH

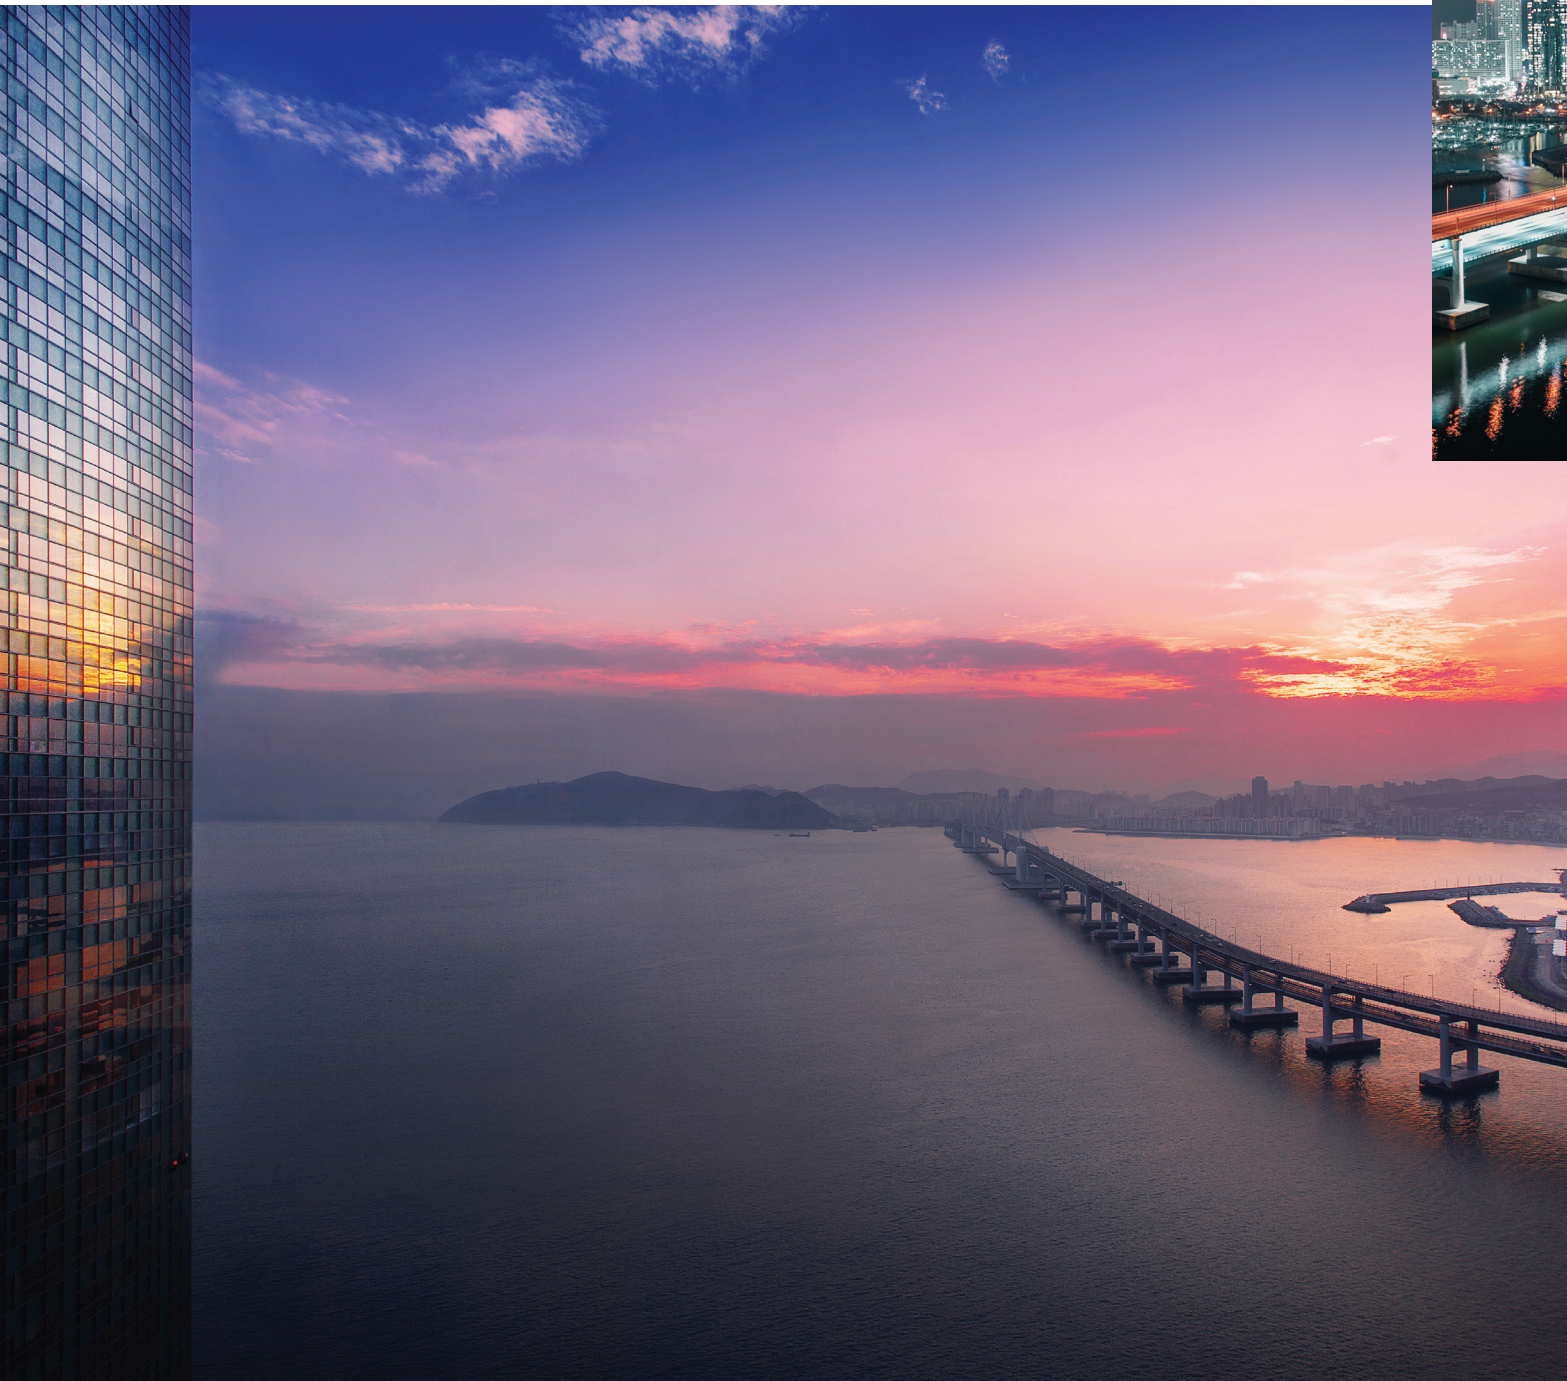

Haeundae Beach, the most famous beach in South Korea, has both natural beauty and historical background. Various culture and art events are regularly held. The area is an international tourist attraction.

HAEDONG YONGGUNG TEMPLE

Founded in 1376, this large temple is one of a few in South Korea to be set on the seaside. It is very popular, particularly during Buddha's Birthday when decorated with paper lanterns. It is also nice to enjoy the sunrise here.

the PARK

A LUXURIOUS LANDMARK OF WORLD-CLASS ARCHITECTURE

Situated in the heart of Haeundae District, the city's premier shopping and beach destination, alongside world-class shopping malls and BEXCO, Busan Exhibition and Convention Center, Park Hyatt Busan presents the ideal destination for sophisticated luxury travelers visiting Busan, South Korea's second largest city, for business or leisure. Designed by Daniel Libeskind and Super Potato, Park Hyatt Busan is a high-rise tower with a premier oceanfront location that comes with scenic views of Gwangan Bridge, the boundless ocean beyond, the yacht marina and the overall city skyline.

A CONTEMPORARY OASIS OF UNMATCHING VENUES

Embodying a vision of residential comfort, Park Hyatt Busan sources handpicked eco-friendly materials such as granite and French oak hardwood, employed to conjure a stylish yet comfortable ambience that blends seamlessly with a contemporary design philosophy.

Guestrooms are crafted as if to transport unaltered scenes of nature into an indoor setting, promising guests enriching experiences of comfort and relaxation during each stay.

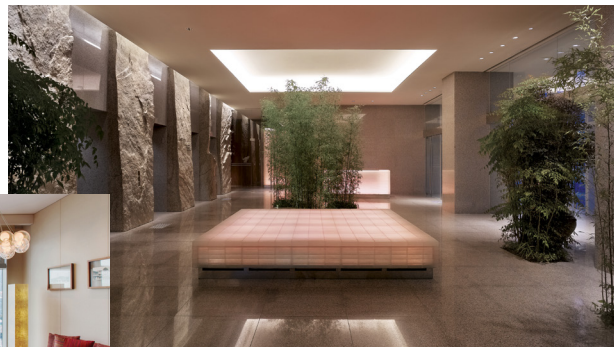

The lobby, situated on the 30th floor, is the first space to greet arriving guests, revealing breathtaking ocean views even before check-in. This artful detail is crafted to leave every guest with an unforgettable impression of their very first encounter with the hotel.

MASTERS OF FOOD & WINE

Park Hyatt Masters of Food & Wine is a series of sophisticated culinary and beverage experiences hosted at selected Park Hyatt locations. Through engaging and interactive events, local residents and visiting gourmands can connect with our award-winning chefs, sommeliers, and specialists.

CREATIVE ART

Each Park Hyatt hotel shares our passion for the arts by creating unique events for both guests and locals to enjoy. From hosting art fairs to unveiling works of art on our walls, we invite our guests to embark on artistic journeys of discovery. Park Hyatt hotels maintain close relationships with many of the artists featured in our hotels. Whenever possible, we take the opportunity to bring these artists to meet our guests and share their insights into the works on display.

PARK HYATT AROUND THE WORLD
